DESCRIPTION:

The tour, with stops and short walks for photography, will take place on the mainland and along the coast of Miami Beach, as well as the historic South Miami Beach, Art Deco district. Fishermen's park, nudist beach, stop at the yacht pier, photo of fish the size of a man. Drive along the most famous street with a stop for photography near the mansion of the Italian designer Gianni Versace, a walk along the famous embankment of the southernmost park overlooking the exclusive island of the rich and famous. Moving from the peninsula to the mainland to the financial center Downtown, passing by the central square named "Friendship of Peoples", visiting and walking along the embankment in the city center, visiting the shopping center and souvenir market. Time for a snack or coffee break - 30 minutes. Transfer to the most historical place of the city of Miami - the Miami Village, a walk on the embankment. Drive along the central financial street of banks and skyscrapers to the southern part of Downtown, stop on the waterfront overlooking the island resort, drive through modern residential areas and visit the unique residential island of the first Banker of Miami overlooking the city center. With a breeze along the highway to the north of the peninsula, and here it is "Little Moscow" - a Russian district! Golf course, residential areas, private sector inside the metropolis and you return to your hotel.
