DESCRIPTION:

People say about this includible city: "You can leave San Francisco, but San Francisco will never leave you..." And it is simple truth, because this romantic and not typical city for the United States make 18 million of tourists to love it every year.

Tour program:

scurrying to the hills, which are the bright symbols of the city.

We will feel the history of California, examine the oldest building in San Francisco – Dolores Catholic mission, and visit the administrative part of the city, where the City Hall and Herbst Theater (in which the United Nations Declaration of 1945 was signed) are situated. After that we will go up the steepest hills of the city, where the famous “flying” chases are filmed, Lombard Street – the most “crooked” street of America, and two wonderful observation decks – “Treasure Island” and Telegraph Hill.
The most important places of the tour are the Golden Gate and Palace of Fine Arts, and the most beautiful view of the city from the Golden Gate. We will go to the scenic hills of San Francisco Bay and from the Embarcadero will be blunging into fog. Haight-Ashbury district will remind the beginning of the hippie, and famous Alamo Square will amaze by the beauty of the Victorian mansions architecture.
