DESCRIPTION:

San Francisco is called the most romantic and not typical city for the US with a good reason, because only here you can find the famous “Golden Gate” bridge, always plunging into fog, the mysterious and majestic Palace of Fine Arts, steep hills with cable cars and Fisherman's Wharf with fur seals, living there,

Union Square and incredible love of the local people to this city.

This amazing tour includes all the most beautiful places of the city, its culture, history and nature.

Tour program:

We will feel the history of California, examine the oldest building in San Francisco – Dolores Catholic mission, and visit the administrative part of the city, where the City Hall and Herbst Theater (in which the United Nations Declaration of 1945 was signed) are situated.

After that we will go up the steepest hills of the city, where the famous “flying” chases are filmed, Lombard Street – the most “crooked” street of America, and two wonderful observation decks – “Treasure Island” and Telegraph Hill.

The most significant places of this tour are the Cathedral, similar to Notre Dame and Pacific Union gentlemen’s club. After visit to the old Spanish Presidio fortress we will go to the scenery bank of San Francisco Bay and see the famous “Golden Gate” bridge, plunging into fog. Then we will visit one of the most picturesque places in California and unique monument of nature, full of redwoods – John Muir Woods.

Itinerary: «Treasure Island» — Central Square — Lombard Street — Telegraph Hill – “Golden Gate” park — Presidio — “Golden Gate” bridge — Muir Woods
