DESCRIPTION:

The TV series "Miami Police: The Department of Morals", which takes place in hot Florida (and which, by the way, was not filmed in Miami) gained worldwide popularity several years ago.

Around the same time, a photo session for the presentation of the new perfume "Obsession" from Calvin Klein took place on the roof of one of the prestigious Ocean Drive hotels in the Art Deco area in Miami.

These events have revived interest in the South Miami beach, and it has become a favorite place for photo shoots, filming of movies and television projects.

Sharon Stone, Sylvester Stallone, Wesley Snipes, Marisa Tomei, Arnold Schwarzenegger, James Woods, Jamie Lee Curtis, Whitney Houston, Kevin Costner, Sean Connery and many other famous actors were involved in films shot in Miami in recent years.

Fashion shows and elite photo shoots are common on the South Beach, which has become the center of glamor, luxury and wealth.

Every day here you can meet famous models, luxury vintage cars, Harley motorcycles and roller skaters of all ages riding along the waterfront, as well as numerous tourists who are relaxing and watching the luxurious life of the South Beach sitting in one of the many outdoor cafes on the Ocean Drive.

Miami is the real king of parties! Nightlife of the city is very bright and memorable, especially in Miami Beach - from the sunset to sunrise, the most famous clubs of the planet hold parties with the best DJ sets, which it is simply impossible not to dance. But the traditional Latin American music can be found in bars throughout the city, and you do not have to go far to find one ... or ten. Midtown or Winwood is the world of fashion and hipster parties, while Downtown is the home of the oldest bars.
