DESCRIPTION: We invite you to an exciting walking tour along embankment of the Moscow River to the most famous park in Moscow - Central Park of Culture and Leisure after Maxim Gorky.

Your tour starts from Kropotkinskaya metro station. During the walk you will see the Cathedral of Christ the Savior. You will pass along the Patriarchy bridge, from which you can see a beautiful view of the Kremlin, past the former confectionery factory "Red October" to the Yakimanskaya embankment. You look at the statue of Peter the Great, the eighth of the list of the highest statues in the world, which is so disliked by Muscovites. You will pass along the park of modern sculpture, where you can find the most famous monuments of Soviet times and works of modern authors. Then you will visit the museum of the park and the observation deck, which offers a magnificent view of Moscow.

The tour is held every Saturday.
