DESCRIPTION: The two-day tour from New York to Boston

Boston - Massachusetts Capital (Massachusetts) one of the centers of culture, education and science. Boston - the most "European" city of the United States, with its special style, manifested in the manner of behavior of citizens, and in the traditions and architecture. The famous Harvard University.

tour route passes through the New England states: Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut. With their interesting history and features, as well as one of the most beautiful cities in America - Boston - familiarity in this tour. The tour also includes a visit to historic cities: the city of the first settlers of Plymouth and the historic "town of witches" of Salem (Winter version of the tour - a visit to Newport)

Tour program:

Day 1.

After driving in three New England states and guide the story about the history and characteristics of the region arrive in downtown Boston. Familiarity with the historical part of the city, a walking tour of the sights of the "Path of the Revolution." Stop at the famous Quincy Market. We admire the city's skyline, such as the area of Copley (Copley square), panorama of bridges and embankments, the grandeur of cathedrals. Visit the Christian Science complex - a world center of the Christian Science Church. Moving across the river Charles, get into the university city of Cambridge, where we will visit the world-famous Harvard University. Sovrshim walking tour of the university campus. A person who wants to study at this university, Harvard touches bronze hands. In the evening - transfer to the hotel, located in the suburbs of Boston.

Day 2.

Visiting Salem - typical old New England town, with an extraordinary history. Visit the Museum of the Salem Witches. Moving to historic Plymouth, where in the early 17th century, pilgrims arrived from Europe in search of religious freedom and founded the first colony of settlers. This is reminiscent of the main monuments of Plymouth - the ship the Pilgrims "Mayflower", Plymouth Rock (Rock), where the first settlers landed, and majestic monument to all the conquerors of the New World. Cranberry - a very important historical and culture that helped to survive the first settlers, and still are grown on plantations New England. Cranberry wine tasting - traditional ritual of this tour.
