DESCRIPTION:

Ring in the New Year 2025 on board one of the most magnificent cruise ships built in 2018, which began its journey from Barcelona. Capable of accommodating 5,200 passengers and displacing more than 230,000 tons, this colossus of the waters is the fourth ship in Royal Caribbean's legendary Oasis class, which already includes such giants as Oasis of the Seas, Allure of the Seas and Harmony of the Seas. Traveling on any of these ships will open up a world of similarities in design, variety of cabins, rich selection of restaurants and bars, and rich entertainment program.

When you sail on Symphony of the Seas for New Year's 2025, you'll be immersed in a world of new innovations, including the Ultimate Family Suite - a new generation of family cabins with a separate playroom for children, equipped with a unique Lego wall, air hockey table and space for games . But that's not all! The Ultimate Family Suite features a pool table, alpine wall, Jacuzzi, 3-D movie theater, extensive video game collection, and even a popcorn machine.

Symphony of the Seas has added new restaurants such as Hooked Seafood, Playmakers Sports Bar & Arcade and Mexican restaurant El Loco Fresh, promising culinary discoveries. In addition to delicious food, unforgettable Broadway shows await you. For lovers of active recreation, guests can take part in laser shows, try out a new water park with an innovative water slide called "The Ultimate Abyss", ice skating and surfing.

Symphony of the Seas invites you to ring in the New Year 2025 on Mediterranean cruises from Barcelona and Rome, offering a unique winter experience in the Caribbean. The first inaugural cruise, sailing from Barcelona in March 2018, set the tone for unforgettable voyages that will continue into 2025.

Now based in the new Terminal A (Crown of Miami) in Miami, Symphony of the Seas is ready to offer week-long Caribbean itineraries, reaffirming its status as the world's largest cruise ship and inviting you on board for a New Year's Eve celebration Royal Caribbean style.
